

Save the date!

Wednesday, December 6, 2017

University of California, San Diego

Annual Research Day

Disparities in HIV prevention, treatment, and care

Keynote Speaker

Nabila El-Bassel, DSW

Dr. El-Bassel is the Willma and Albert Musher Professor of Social Work at Columbia University, Director of the Global Health Research Center of Central Asia, and Director of the Social Intervention Group (SIG). Dr. El-Bassel has designed and tested a number of multi-level HIV, intervention, and prevention models for women, men, and couples in different settings such drug treatment and harm reduction programs, primary care, and criminal justice settings.

Abstracts

Abstracts are invited on domestic and international disparities in HIV prevention, treatment, and care.

Preference will be given to submissions supported by the San Diego CFAR.

Abstracts are due by 4:00 PM on Friday, October 6, 2017.

See the Call for Abstracts for details.

Important Dates

Mark your calendars now!

Friday, October 6: Abstracts due

Monday, October 16: Selected presenters notified and online registration opens

Friday, December 1: Online registration closes

Wednesday, December 6: Annual SD CFAR Research Day!

Details: <http://cfar.ucsd.edu>

