

Call for Abstracts

Annual Research Day

Thursday, December 6, 2018

Abstract due date extended to Monday September 10, 2018!

New in 2018! Emerging Investigator Prize!

The best abstract by an emerging investigator will be selected for a 30-minute talk at the 2018 Research Day. Even better, the author (you, perhaps?) will receive a $200 gift certificate to the UC San Diego Bookstore!

Submission Guidelines

Due date	Monday, September 10, 2018, 4:00 PM
Eligibility	Investigators who focus on HIV/AIDS clinical, behavioral, public health, or laboratory research are invited to submit abstracts to the 2018 Annual CFAR Research Day. Preference will be given to emerging investigators and to those whose research has been supported by San Diego CFAR Core services or grant funding. Grant funding includes Developmental grants, International Pilot grants, Administrative Supplements, or Next Generation grants.
Heading	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Title: Use a concise title that indicates the content of the abstract. Italicize specific names of microorganisms.</li><li>• Authors: Authors' names should be typed in upper- and lowercase letters (please do not use all capital letters). Use first name and last name. Indicate the presenting author and include an e-mail address and business phone. There is a limit of 10 authors per abstract.</li><li>• Affiliations: List institution, city, and state for domestic authors. List institution, city, and country for international authors. Do not include department, division, laboratory, or acknowledgements.</li><li>• Funding source: List funding source(s) and grant number(s). All grants funded by the San Diego Center for AIDS Research (SD CFAR) share the same number: P30 AI036214.</li></ul>
Content	Abstracts are welcome on all aspects of HIV/AIDS clinical, behavioral, public health, or laboratory research. Abstracts are limited to 2,500 characters, including spaces. A maximum of one table or one figure may be included. Please do not include literature references or copyright or trademark symbols. Please bold the following four section headings within the text of your abstract. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Background: A concise statement of the issue under investigation or a hypothesis;</li><li>• Methods: The experimental methods used (including the statistical analyses employed);</li><li>• Results: Specific findings (promises such as “to be completed” or “to be presented” are not acceptable); and</li><li>• Conclusions: A summary of findings that are supported by your results. (Statistical analyses used to support the conclusions, where appropriate, should be included; concluding statements such as “the results will be discussed” are not acceptable.)</li></ul>
Restrictions	Abstracts will not be accepted for work that has been published. We will consider abstracts for work that has been presented but not yet published. When submitting your abstract, please indicate in your email whether and where your research was previously presented.
Submissions	Email completed abstracts in MS Word or PDF to cfar@ucsd.edu by 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, September 5, 2018. Results will be announced by Tuesday, September 18, and the CFAR Research Day is scheduled on Thursday, December 6.
